

Narrative Justification

Below, give an explanation of the individual's qualifications for teaching this course based on background, experience, professional credentials, expertise etc. (using the "Justification Checklist" as your guide):

Name: Jane Doe

Course Information: ARC 4326 Architectural Design 7

Term: Spring 2012

Degree(s): B.Arch in Architecture, University of Havana

Explanation of the individual's qualifications to teach this course:

Jane Doe has served as an adjunct in the School of Architecture since 2002. Jane earned her degree in architecture from the University of Havana in 1951. However, due to political circumstances, it remains impossible for immigrants from Cuba to get documentation of academic transcripts.

Jane Doe has had an illustrious career both within the academy and within the profession. She is internationally accepted as one of the foremost experts on the architectural modernism of Cuba. Her professional built work in Cuba, as well as her writing and her scholarship are internationally recognized and she has received numerous awards for both. She has over 56 years of peer reviewed scholarship and creative work and has worked with some of the most important figures of modernism including Picasso, LeCorbusier and Jose Luis Sert.

In conclusion, Doe's international reputation, body of built work, and accomplishments, richly qualify her to teach all ARC courses.
